In March 2024 the data of this article was changed. This can happen if we correct our data or if products change slightly. We highlight changes to data in yellow so that you can find them as quickly as possible. In this case, the „Beschreibung DE“ field has been changed.

The TIMESTAMP field allows you to filter, sort or import data in a targeted manner. Here are three filters that are useful in practice as an example:

Filter: All data records that have been changed since March 2023.

Filter: All data records that were added in March 2024.

Filter: All data records that were added or changed in 2024.
